Prices payable to the supplier as stated in the contract shall be firm during the performance of the contract.

16. Contract amendments:

No variation in or modification of the terms of the contract shall be made except by written amendment signed by the parties.

The supplier shall notify the purchaser in writing of all subcontracts awarded under this contract if not already specified in the tender. Such notification, in his original tender or later, shall not relieve the supplier from any liability or obligation under the contract. Sub-contracts shall be only for bought out items and sub-assemblies.

17. Delays in the Suppliers Performance:

- a) Delivery of the equipment and performance of the services shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the time schedule specified by the purchaser in the schedule of requirements.
- b) If at any time during performance of the contract, the supplier or its sub contractor (s) should encounter conditions impeding timely delivery of the equipment and performance of the services, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its causes. As soon as practicable after receipt of the suppliers notice, the purchaser shall evaluate the situation and may, at its discretion, extend the suppliers time for performance with or without liquidated damages, in which case the extension shall be ratified by the parties by amendment of the contract.
- c) A delay by the supplier in the performance of its delivery obligations shall render the supplier liable to the imposition of liquidated damages.

18. Liquidated Damages:

If the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the equipment or to perform the services within the period specified in the contract, the purchaser shall, without prejudice to its other remedies under the contract, deduct from the contract price, as liquidated damages, a sum equivalent to 0.5% of the delivered price of the delayed equipment or unperformed services for each week or part thereof delay until actual delivery or performance, upto a maximum deduction of 10% of the contract price. Once the maximum is reached, the purchaser may consider termination of the contract.

19. Termination for Default:

The purchaser shall, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, terminate the contract in whole or part:

- a) If the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the equipment within the period specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the purchaser.
- b) If the supplier fails to perform any other obligations under the contract. If the supplier, in the judgement of the purchaser has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in executing the contract

For the purpose of this clause:

“corrupt practice” means the offering, receiving or soliciting of any thing of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution.

“fraudulent practice” means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the purchaser, and includes collusive practices among tenderers (prior to or after tender submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the purchaser of the benefits of free and open competition.

In the event the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or part, the purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, equipment or services similar to those undelivered, and the similar equipment or services. However, the supplier shall continue the performance of the contract to the extent not terminated.

- c) In case of delayed supplies penalty at 2% per week will be levied subject to maximum of 10%.

20. FORCE MAJEURE:

- a) The supplier shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, liquidated damages or termination for default, if and to the extent that, its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure.
- b) For purpose of this clause, “Force Majeure” means an event beyond the control of the supplier and not involving the suppliers fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not limited to, acts of the purchaser either in its sovereign or contractual capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions and freight embargoes.
- c) If a force majeure situation arises, the supplier shall promptly notify the Purchaser in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the purchaser in writing, the supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as is reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the force majeure event.

21. Termination for insolvent:

The purchaser shall at any time terminate the contract by giving written notice to the supplier, if the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In this event, termination will be without compensation to the supplier, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the purchaser.

22. Termination for convenience:

The purchaser by written notice sent to the supplier, may terminate the contract, in whole or in part, at any time for its convenience. The notice of termination shall specify that termination is for the purchasers convenience, the extent to which performance of the supplier under the contract is terminated, and the date upon which such termination becomes effective.

The equipment those are complete and ready for shipment within 30 days after the suppliers receipt of notice of termination shall be accepted by the purchaser at the contract terms and prices. For the remaining equipment, the purchaser may elect:

- a) To have any portion completed and delivered at the contract terms and prices; and /or
- b) To cancel the remainder and pay to the supplier an agreed amount for partially completed equipment and for materials and parts previously procured by the supplier.

23. Settlement of Disputes:

The purchaser and the supplier shall make every effort to resolve amicably by direct informal negotiation any disagreement or dispute arising between them under or in connection with the contract.

If, after thirty (30) days, the parties failed to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultation, then either the purchaser or the supplier may give notice to the other party of its intention to commence arbitration, as hereinafter provided, as to the matter in dispute, and no arbitration in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given

- a) Any dispute or difference in respect of which a notice of intention to commence arbitration has been given in accordance with this clause shall be finally settled by arbitration. Arbitration may be commenced prior to or after delivery of the equipment under the contract.
- b) Arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of procedure.
- c) Notwithstanding any reference to arbitration herein,
 - i) The parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under the contract unless they otherwise agree; and
 - ii) The purchaser shall pay the supplier any monies due the supplier.

24. Limitation of Liability:

Except in cases of criminal negligence or willful misconduct and in the case of infringement.

- a) The supplier shall not be liable to the purchaser, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, loss of use, loss of production, or loss of profits or interest costs, provided that this exclusion shall not apply to any obligation of the supplier to pay liquidated damages to the purchaser; and
- b) The aggregate liability of the supplier to the purchaser, whether under the contract, in tort or otherwise, shall not exceed the total contract price, provided that this limitation shall not apply to the cost of repairing or replacing defective equipment.

25. Governing Language:

The contract shall be written in English language, English language version of the contract shall govern its interpretation. All correspondence and other documents pertaining to the contract which are exchanged by the parties shall be written in same language.

26. Applicable Law:

The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Union of India.

27. Tender form and price schedule shall be completed with information including equipment to be supplied, a brief description of the equipment, quantity and prices.

28. Tenderer shall indicate on the price schedule the unit prices and total prices of the equipment it proposed to supply under the contract and to offer any discounts available.

(However, tenderers shall quote for the complete requirement of equipment and services specified under each equipment on a single responsibility basis, failing which such tenders will not be considered for award)

29. The price of equipment, quoted (ex-works, ex-factory, ex-showroom, ex-warehouse or off-the shelf as applicable) including all duties and sales and other taxes already paid or payable for the delivery of final destination and should be in Indian Rupees.
